

Everything was so beautiful, Joseph,
and everyone was so happy,
but it made me want to cry.
How sad for Jesus not to be wanted
at His own birthday party.
I'm glad it was only a dream.

How terrible, Joseph, if it had been real!

"Let's put Christ back into Christmas"
for then there will be peace on earth for all men.

We pray that this Christmas
And the New Year
And all the days of your life
Will be full of God's blessings
Of Love, Joy, and Peace

Mary's Christmas Dream
I had a dream, Joseph, I don't understand it, not really, but I think it was about a birthday celebration for Our Son.
I think that was what it was all about.
The people had been preparing for it for about 6 weeks. They had decorated the house and bought new clothes. They'd gone shopping many times and bought elaborate gifts.
It was peculiar though, because the presents were not for Our Son.
They wrapped them in beautiful paper and tied them with lovely bows, and stacked them under a tree. Yes, a tree, Joseph, right in their house.
They decorated the tree also. The branches were full of glowing balls and sparkling ornaments.
There was a figure on the top of the tree. It looked like how an angel might look. Oh, it was so beautiful. Everyone was laughing and they were very happy. They were all excited about the gifts.
They gave the gifts to each other, Joseph,
not to Our Son.
I don't think they ever knew Him.
They never mentioned His name, not once.
Doesn't it seem odd for people to go to all that trouble to celebrate someone's birthday if they don't know Him? I had the strangest feeling that, if Our Son had gone to this celebration,
He would have been intruding
